Surviving Persecution: An International Study of Trauma and Healing:

This international study of children's experiences of organized persecution explores the Holocaust and its aftermath as prototypical social trauma. Traumatized persons' feelings of shame and guilt as well as a sense of being different may prevail and they may attribute great power to others, seek safety in isolation or search for a rescuer. Nevertheless, as a group, the child survivors of the Holocaust have achieved remarkable success as adults. Drawn from this is a cogent, expansive collection of research-informed treatises on the psychological experience of trauma survivors, particularly survivors of attempted social/ethnic annihilation. The work has considerable merit. Readings: A Journal of Social and Comm
