why did the chicken cross the road we dont know but it probably had its reasons a new paper published in the journal animal cognition reports that the barnyard i find it rather silly to hear people who have only studied evolution read about evolution or who have only been exposed to it by the myriad shows movies and The Rational Animal: How Evolution Made Us Smarter Than We Think:

2 of 2 review helpful Great insights into why we appear to make bad choices By Chris Crafford This book gives great understanding and insight into why we often make decisions and take actions we ourselves don t understand in retrospect and the people around us that know us definitely think we lost it The idea that we have sub personas deeply vested in our ancient past makes a lot of sense to me and fits well Why do three out of four professional football players go bankrupt How can illiterate jungle dwellers pass a test that tricks Harvard philosophers And why do billionaires work so hard only to give their hard earned money away When it comes to making decisions the classic view is that humans are eminently rational But growing evidence suggests instead that our choices are often irrational biased and occasionally even moronic Which view is right or is From Booklist Sheer stupidity is what economic rationalists see when Elvis Presley buys 100 glitzy Cadillacs when New York governor Eliot Spitzer pays as much as 80 000 for escort services and when Steven Spiel
