From Wiley-Blackwell : The Goffman Reader The Goffman Reader:

The Goffman Reader aims to bring the most complete collection of Erving Goffman's 1922-1982 writing and thinking as a sociologist. Among the most inventive, unique and individualistic of thinkers in American sociology, his works first appeared in the early 1950s at a time when a more formal, traditional sociology dominated the scene. In this collection, Goffman's work is arranged into four categories: the production of self, the confined self, the nature of social life, and Now.

thanks to a well conceived and elegantly introduced selection of his writings by Charles Lemert and Ann Branaman those familiar with Goffman can be stimulated once more Charles Edgley Oklahoma State University As readers go this one like
